Conservation Commission Minutes – May 27, 2025 - Draft

Eric slayton eric.slayton@me.com
- lives on trillium way
-active in conservation
-ornithologist published
-was on Hogback board
-worked on management plan
-against forest management
-self proclaimed strong point of view
-shift local thinking on logging and land management
-previous member of the conservation commission

Jeremiah wallock
-interested in conservation
-small role humans can play in forest management
-a lot of ideas for project
    -the forest is the pond
    -try to stop industrialization of the forest

Lindy will email Nick to add the new members

Current use info session
-town fund made by donation to replace the tax break form current use

Legacy conservation info session
-find out of town representatives (eva will call) llindy has lead)
-Jeremiah looking into change in new current use program)
-interplay between town and state
-reimagining logging
-draft horse logging

Logging regulations research
-how big should a buffer be?
-compare our town to other towns ahmcc pressured by the state to log

-recent adaptation from selective cutting to patch cut
-Jenny has been consulting the ahmcc
-ahmcc is 501c7